IISRP Expands Speaker Program for 51st AGM in Dubai

Houston, TX, USA, 2 March 2010— The International Institute of Synthetic Rubber Producers, Inc. (IISRP) has announced an expansion to the speakers' program for its 51st Annual General Meeting (AGM) in Dubai, UAE, 12-15 April 2010, according to James L. McGraw, IISRP Managing Director and CEO.

“Tradition, Innovation, Forward Vision” is the theme of the Institute's first meeting in the Middle East. “We have confirmed that Ambassador Luigi Narbone, the European Union delegate to the Gulf Cooperation Council will deliver the keynote address where he will present current and future EU business opportunities with the GCC,” said James L. McGraw. “In addition to the previously announced speakers, we will also have presentations from Dr. Abdulwahab Al-Sadoun, the Secretary General of the Gulf Petrochemical and Chemicals Association and Mr. Brad Bourland, Head of Research, Chief Economist and CFO of Jadwa Investments,” added McGraw.

The full AGM program and registration are available to the general public on the IISRP's website at: www.iisrp.com.

IISRP is an international not-for-profit trade association with corporate members, domiciled in 21 countries, who produce 90 percent of the world's supply of synthetic rubber. Incorporated in 1960 and headquartered in Houston, Texas, the Institute supports section offices in Milan and Tokyo.
